Tookie,
What a great year.
Had fun working with you, Mrs. Snyder and the cast.
Hope next year we'll be in it.
Got to get the #15, or you'll never see Robert again. Don't be so serious we'll get take there.
Lots of Everlasting

CORTLAND SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

And I know that in some ways
It will be the same,
I know it will;
I took the time
to know you well,
I thought that I would tell you now.

In fact I know that I will find out how to let you know:
The time has come to go somewhere,
To find ourselves,

And someday we will have our chance to be who we left,
Or lose all our dreams and turn them to dust,
And bury them in a crowd of memories.
—Richie Havens

SOPH

We are one . . . .
Each different
Yet alike;
Living together,
Sharing the day,
Existing apart.

We are one . . . .
Each alone;
Dreaming, growing, hoping,
Searching, striving, living,
Individuals
Indivisible.

We are one . . . .
Each unique,
Embracing common goals,
Bound together
In the experience of Life.

We dedicate this, our 1974 Co-Hi-An, to individuality and to the universal bond that makes us one.

Tookie)

That sounds like a Tookie bird but anaway I was glad to meet you this in our grate English class
your a good friend
(probly) a better enemy)

Our 1974 Co-Hi-An Staff has worked many long and tiresome hours to produce this yearbook. There were many times when we wondered if this book would ever become a reality. At last, it is. We hope that you enjoy seeing our ideas turned into a collection of memories of life at Cortland Senior High School.

Senior Advisors

Seated: Mr. Jack Furman, Mrs. Shirley Allen, Mrs. Margaret Morris, Mr. Douglas Green. Standing: Mr. John Knapp, Mr. Richard Sadler, Mrs. Marion Strang, Mr. James Ochsner, Mr. David Newton.

Mr. Thomas Thurlow
Director of Senior Activities

WANTED

Nine fearless teachers from the CHS faculty . . . Last seen asking how many days are left in the school year . . . If seen aimlessly wandering the halls please notify the Senior Class as we would like to thank them for all they've done.

Mr. Thurlow has been a valuable advisor mainly because of his ability to think young. (Not insinuating that he's old!) The Class of '74 wishes to thank Mr. Thurlow for all he's done for us.

Senior Class Officers

Independent Study?????

Class spirit far surpassed all expectations due to the genuine interest and efforts put forth by our class officers. The Class of '74 wishes to thank our fellow classmates for a job well done.

Mr. John A. Gee, Principal

Mr. William D. Baldwin, Vice Principal

One man everyone looks up to in this school is Mr. Gee. His physical stature demands this but more importantly the high ideals which he possesses make him truly a man to be admired.

As they say, "Experience is the best teacher." However, Mr. Baldwin has proven this statement wrong. Even though he has only one year of experience as Vice Principal, he is doing a fine job of filling a difficult position.

G.O. Drive

The G.O. Drive was a success this year due to the hard work of Chairman Meg Taylor and team captains Leanne Atcheson and Gary Schuehler. The sales, totalling $2,947.54, were divided equally between the Board of Education and the Student Council. Student Council used the G.O. funds to start the year's activities and appropriate money to various school organizations, while the Board of Education spent the money on the Athletics Department at CHS.

Letter of Commendation

These students received a National Merit Letter of Commendation because of the noteworthy results they obtained on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. Though their scores weren't high enough to merit them semi-finalist status, the testing agency felt these select students deserved recognition for their academic achievement. Good work!

Semi-finalists

Four students at Cortland High School obtained high enough scores on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude test to be ranked as semi-finalists. This means that these boys became eligible for scholarships awarded only to top students in the country. An honor such as this doesn't come every day. Congratulations!

J. Casey, T. Ames, M. Spence, T. Hanchett.

Row One: R. Petracca, S. Jerome, B. Grainger, M. Spence, J. Casey, Mr. Thurlow, Advisor. Row Two: Mr. Tavarone, Advisor; G. Corsi, S. Holben, L. Hackworth, A. Koval.

These eight students, four Seniors and four Juniors, were selected by their fellow classmates to compete against students from all over New York State for scholarships at Syracuse University's Maxwell School of Public Relations. Competitors presented speeches, participated in small group discussions of current events and vital issues, and attended a mock legislative session at which laws were proposed, debated, and voted on. It was a rewarding and enlightening experience for all involved. Congratulations to Steve Jerome who was awarded a four year full scholarship.

Membership in the National Thespian Society is awarded those students who demonstrate continuing interest and involvement in dramatic productions at CHS. Each spring the society presents a major comedy, drama or musical to delight both school and community. Welcoming Ms. Snyder as new advisor, our aspiring performers have continued the tradition of "smash hits" produced annually at CHS.

Honor Society

Elected to the National Honor Society in the spring of their Junior year, the Seniors pictured represent the qualities perpetuated by this nationwide organization — scholarship, leadership, character, and service. These Seniors were joined by a number of their classmates this past December and they also deserve congratulations for the honor accorded them.

Boys' State

Last June 24 through June 30, Boys' State was held at the N.Y.S. Agricultural and Technical College at Morrisville. This week last summer was a true learning experience for Ed Burgess, Darryl Dahlheimer, and Carl Savino. They, along with approximately 1,000 other students from around the state, established an efficient state government within a week's time. Governor Wilson (then Lt. Governor) and other political figures gave talks on the operation of our government.

D. Dahlheimer, C. Savino, E. Burgess.

Patty Mullen

Girls' State

At the end of June 1973, Patty Mullen, along with girls from all over New York State, met to gain firsthand knowledge of the workings of government. In Cazenovia, where the convention was held, the girls studied and became actively involved in the election process. The program culminated with the inauguration of city and state officers elected from and by the girls attending.

Homecoming

This year's Homecoming was a huge success and a good time for everyone involved. Competition fo the award of "Best Float" was fierce as usual, but this year the judges had an especially difficult time mak ing a decision. Finally, the Senior and Junior floats were judged to be equally good and the competitio ended in a tie. After the float parade, participants enjoyed a delicious meal and later danced to the musi of Rasputin.

Homecoming Floats

Senior Float

Everyone can see why the judges had such a difficult time selecting a "winner." Competition was very stiff because of the outstanding quality of each float. Many long hours were spent erecting these "masterpieces" and all involved had a feeling of great satisfaction seeing their floats on parade. However, experience proved to be an important factor this year as the Seniors and Juniors tied for first place.

The Debate Club fosters the development of debate teams and individual speakers. The members participate in weekend debate tournaments and individual speaking events competition. This year's high school debate topic was "Resolved: that the federal government should guarantee a minimum annual income to each family unit". This year was the first in which the Cortland debate hosted a tournament at our high school.

Chess Club

Chess Club was started because of the interest of a few students. The members of this organization met every Thursday to play chess and improve their game. They also were invited to a tournament in Groton during March.

Youth And Government

New to CHS this year, the Youth and Government Club has attempted to educate and involve students in the workings of state government. Members represented Cortland at a statewide convention held in Albany during December 1973. Each delegate wrote and researched a bill to be presented at mock legislative sessions. It was a great learning experience and fun as well.

Photography Club

Formed in the spring of 1973 as an informal group of interested amateurs, the Photography Club has this year become a recognized school activity. These amateur shutterbugs experiment with new techniques in taking and processing pictures. The school dark room—long unused—has come alive this year. We on the Co-Hi-An staff, especially, hope for a great future for this club.

Bonfire

The Bonfire is a literary publication that will include the works of anyone who wishes to submit his ideas for printing. This was the first year for The Bonfire, and the staff looks forward to another successful year.

Muse-ings

Muse-ings, published annually each spring, provides CHS's talented young writers and artists with a chance to see their work in print. Awarded "Most Improved" of the participating school literary publications at last fall's ESSPA conference held in Syracuse, the magazine seems to have a promising future. Ms. Burdick, succeeding Mr. Baldwin as advisor, worked hard with editor-in-chief Jim Tanner and the grade editors to stimulate interest in and contributions to this year's publication.

Purple Pennant Editorial Staff

The Purple Pennant strived to print more timely and interesting news this year, as well as higher quality articles. Each editor was responsible for supervising one specific page of the newspaper. They assigned articles to members of the staff and oversaw the development and finalization of their designated page. The advisor this year was Ms. Gibb, who did a very fine job for her first year in this position.

Literary

Purple Pennant Staffs

The Literary Staff worked hard this year to develop a really interesting paper. The newswriters came up with a 'News Notes' digest column to include even more school news. The editorials pushed important issues like study hall reform and equality of the sexes in athletic funding. The sports writers expanded athletic coverage, especially of girl's sports. The biggest improvements were to be found on the feature pages as larger papers allowed coverage of more school and community activities.

Business

The Purple Pennant Business Staff is responsible for the partia financing of the school newspaper Headed by Carl Savino, their group sold enough ads to allow expanded coverage of school events and the printing of more issues of the paper We congratulate the staff on its progress in helping to make the paper self-supporting.

Money, who needs it? Ask Meg Taylor—Business Manager for the 1974 Co-Hi-An! Meg and the members of the business staff were on the streets many long hours soliciting money to pay for this self-sufficient yearbook. The staff was really put to the test since this was one of the most expensive yearbooks Cortland High School has ever had. Without their hard work, the 1974 Co-Hi-An would never have been.

The majorettes this year, advised and directed by Mrs. Bonnie Goodson, have been an integral part of the CHS Marching Band half time shows. Senior Captain Diane Connelly led the girls through many memorable shows and they have added flair to the football season.

With their original formations and precision drills, the colorguard has become a vital part to the CHS Marching Band. Adding a mark of distinction to any performance, the group hopes to expand the program and establish itself as a year round activity, with participation in various activities.

1973-1974 Varsity Football

Varsity football has been a main reason for Cortland gh's athletic reputation in the past, and this year was no ception. A super effort by seniors and underclassmen ke made for a cohesive fighting unit that finished a ugh season with a 7-1 STAC record, 8-1 overall. Coach dzavicz proved this year that hard work pays off. This ar it paid off in a Division Championship.

The Tigers lone loss came at the hands of Johnson y's Wildcats by a score of 15-14. The loss was especial- hard to take since the Tigers had ended Maine- dwell's win streak at 13 games earlier in the season. e one point loss cost the Tigers sole possession of the ntral Division Championship (Maine-Endwell held on to C.H.S. for co-leadership).

The season ended on an especially sweet note, a 26- drubbing of arch-rival Homer.

Congratulations to one of the finest Tiger squads er to wear Purple and White.

When a pre-season inquisition was made of Jack Radzavicz about 1973 Cortland High football depth, his response was "three."

Oh, said the interviewer, you mean three deep?

"No," succinctly answered the Tigers' coach, "three men at each position, period."

The lean Cortland numbers left little room for injuries, though the coaching staff realistically knew such an asking wasn't possible. "But we'd kinda hoped to steer clear of the serious type," said Radzavicz.

Along that line of thinking, the mentor had whipped his charges into tip-top physical shape, pershaps the best of any Radzavicz-coached squad.

HOMER — Cortland High's opportunistic defense, ball ntrol ground attack and a long bomb gave the Purple gers a 26-14 victory over arch rival Homer in a snowy ason finale here last night.

The Purple got the jump early on the fumble-plagued rojans for a 20-0 halftime lead then beat back a Homer unterattack that saw their great tailback Bob Avery score vice in his final high school game.

Local eyes now turn southward to the Triple Cities area here the outcome of two games means the difference etween divisional championships or co-championships for oth the Trojans and the Purple. Homer fans will be watching Catholic Central's visit to Susquehanna Valley where a rusader win over SV would give the Trojans undisputed ossession of the Suburban Division crown. SV, now 5-2, must in to tie Homer at 6-2.

Otherwise, the Tigers' steady running has done the job, even though opposing defenses are stacking lines. M-E had eight man fronts staring the locals who still managed 175 yards on inside and outside darts. Cortland has rushed for 791 yards in 210 cracks on the year.

THE PURPLE defense probably delighted in the win more than anybody, and with solid credentials. They held the Spartans between the 30s except for a fourth quarter 29 yard pass play for a score on one of "few breakdowns," said coach Jack Radzavicz.

"Our defense was superb, expecially in the first half, and the game films backed it up'" the coach said. He attributed early game success to an overshifted defense against M-E's power-I attack. "In the last half our linebackers were calling the shift, but for some reason the linemen weren't hearing as well. There seemed to be a lot of noise out there."

Coaching Staff

The coaches for Cortland's football teams this yea were more dedicated than ever. Their hard work an determination was instilled in the players and th results were winning teams. All of us at CHS owe a deb of gratitude to these fine coaches and their interest i Cortland athletics.

Although this year's Varsity team was one of the best in recent years, it was hurt seriously with the loss of Senior tackle Brian McGinley. After making a tough tackle in the Union-Endicott game, he was benched for the remainder of the season with a cracked vertebrae. Brian was an inspiration to his team and one of the best athletes ever to play at CHS.

The Junior Varsity team led by Mr. King and Mr. Hess nished with a 7-2 record this year. They proved to be a ompatible partner for this year's successful Varsity quad. Good speed, hard hitting, and determination ade for another fine team which is fast becoming a tradi- on at the Junior Varsity level. This year's Sophomores ave shown that they will truly be the team of the future.

Girls' Field Hockey

Girls' Field Hockey is another in the continuing line of fine athletic teams found at C.H.S.

Senior Jody Stokoe, along with Juniors Ellen Rothenburg and Janice Caughey led Miss Curtis' well coached team to an 8-3-1 S.T.A.C. record. Their performance this year is well worth public appreciation.

Girls' sports at Cortland High annually excel above most of the rival competition. Volleyball was stronger than ever this year, finishing with a 9-1 STAC record (11-2 overall). The "Spikettes" finished in a tie with Maine-Endwell and shared the Division Championship. Three Seniors along with several Juniors proved to be the winning combination time after time. The girls proved that the male athletes at CHS aren't the only bunch that can produce a winner.

Many felt the 73-74 Wrestling team didn't have a sho in the dark of making a decent showing this season. Unde the guidance of Coach Gary Dillingham, the Tige Grapplers ground out a 6-9 record. Good seasons were turned in by Senior, Joe Armideo; Juniors, John Kaminski, Jim VanGorder, Kevin Dorset, and Clark Doney. Freshmen and Sophomores filled out the rest o the squad. Every time they took to the mats they showe class and guts while competing in one of the toughest high school sports in existence.

This season's Basketball Team, after a weak start, eventually came on strong. Seniors Chuck Brackett, Mark McQuade, and Jim Casey helped carry the team. Help came from high scoring Ed Fedele and tough rebounder Al Stevens. Scott Court served as the fifth starter on a team where speed counts. Coach Hannon finally instilled some winning prowess into the Tiger squad, and we all hope that it continues.

Junior Varsity Basketball was coached by Mr. Jackson. They had a fine season and improved steadily game by game. A strong defense coupled with a potent offense made the Kittens a feared power on the Junior Varsity level. The boys, along with their pride and talent, will be a welcome addition to next Winter's Varsity squad.

Senior, Andre Young

Cross Country was a disappointment to many harrier fans this year though several concentrated efforts did shine through. Joe Patriarco and Dave Light along with Senior Andre Young had several good showings that kept the season from becoming a total loss. Many of the participants are underclassmen and they should come on strong next season.

Track

As usual, this year's Co-Hi-An has encountered the expected hard time of representing Spring sports the way they should be. Production deadlines are a constant problem and they make it impossible to represent anyone in the current year after February 15. The staff decided to remedy the situation somewhat this year. The pictures on this page are of track performers on the 72-73 squad, but they will all be returning this year. Among them are Joe Armideo, Doty Willis, Joe Comerford, and many others. Good luck in advance to one of the powerhouse track teams in Section IV.

Golf Team

This year's Golf Team captured the Southern Division crown with a 10-6 record against S.T.A.C. competition. Gary Biviano was the lone Senior on a Hannon-coached team that kept its cool under pressure. Although golf at Cortland High is not what anyone would call a spectator sport, those who did show up at the Country Club were impressed with CHS golf proficiency.

Herbert Hoover on Fishing: It is the chance to wash one's soul with pure air, with the rustle of the brook, or with the shimmer of the sun on the blue water. It brings meekness and inspiration from the decency of nature, charity toward tackle makers, patience toward fish, a mockery of profits and egos, a quieting of hate, a rejoicing that you do not have to decide a darned thing until next week, and it is discipline in the equality of men—for all men are equal before fish.
